

MIOSHA Training Registration Form

OSHA General Industry 10-Hour (Overflow Class)

Led by Chris Johnson
& Tim Melko

What You'll Learn...

Many companies are faced with the need for employees to perform new or multiple job functions. As personnel shifts to accommodate business needs it is essential to understand the importance of safety and health programs and their effect on business. This course offers an introduction to OSHA and MIOSHA, the resources and tools to create or enhance an effective safety and health program, and highlights of many key General Industry Safety and Health Standards. In this two-day course, each student will receive an OSHA General Industry 10-Hour card upon successful completion of the course.
